
Right: negative = predicted onset too early; positive = too late. Shading marks ±7 days and dotted lines mark ±10 days.
Training improvement is not held-out improvement. Each OOF prediction uses the RH and other parameters chosen without that site-year.
The connected points are model comparisons, not confidence intervals. There are six independent site-years.