
Response: absolute distance between predicted and observed onset intervals (days). Bars: estimate ± 95% bootstrap half-width.
Only complete designs are plotted; no incomplete rows are removed. Missing panels are not evidence of weak parameter effects.
Six-site RMSE/MAE indices are unavailable for both models. These site-specific estimates cannot substitute for aggregate error sensitivity.